Upon receiving your application we will contact you via email or telephone to set up a time to do a phone interview with you. In most cases we will notify you of your acceptance within 30 days of the interview (phone, personal, etc.).

Upon acceptance into the RHOP Internship, you will receive an email, letter of acceptance and/or phone call.

: One of the most important requirements for acceptance is that each applicant has a teachable spirit. Applicants do not need to be perfect, but willing and diligent to learn.

: The purpose of the internship is to give oneself to God without any distractions. This time is to be utilized to further establish a standard of intimacy with Jesus that will last a lifetime. During the internship in Manitou Springs, dating is not permitted. We're confident when you separate yourself unto a focus on Christ, you will find that the reward will far outweigh the sacrifice (i.e. one on one alone time; being alone with the opposite sex; extended phone, email or im conversations).

: We ask that the internship is valued as an uninterrupted season of consecration. There are no personal breaks during the internship. Examples: weekend trips, family reunions, graduations, concerts, any other personal events, etc.

: Neither RHOP nor the Internship program will be able to cover hospitalization and/or visits to the doctor. Each applicant should provide his or her own health insurance coverage.

: We recommend that each student have access to a reliable vehicle throughout the term. All interns who do not have a vehicle are still held responsible for their own transportation needs (i.e. punctuality to meetings, class, etc.). You are responsible to insure your vehicles as required by South Carolina state law.

: Each intern must have sufficient funds to cover any personal expenses that they may incur throughout the term.

: All money is to be paid up front for each semester.

: The minimum time commitment is 6-months. Special consideration may be made for a shorter 3-month commitment during the summer months.

RHOP acknowledges our call to live worthy of the Gospel. We understand that the imposition of external “rules of behavior” is not our ideal to motivate people to holiness. Our motivations for holiness are love for Jesus and people, not the pressure of imposed rules. However, in the spirit of Galatians 3:21-23, we recognize the need for standards set in place until the character of Christ is formed in us as articulated in the Sermon on the Mount (Matt 5-7). It is in this spirit that we affirm the following: RHOP Missions Base is a community of believers who have committed themselves to Jesus as Lord living as forerunners in the spirit of John the Baptist, preparing the way for the second coming of Jesus Christ. This commitment governs the way we live our private lives and the way we relate to others. The RHOP community seeks to witness to authentic Christian discipleship by living with integrity, purity and love. This is our ‘Nazirite or Shulamite like’ calling. The RHOP community asks all its staff members (both full-time and associate) to commit to live counter to the prevailing moral laxity of our society by not participating in or condoning sexual activity outside of marriage and to refrain from the use of alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, tobacco and gambling. We believe that it is an essential commitment in view of our calling as a community to reach young adults.

The total cost for the internships are posted on the RHOP website. Upon notification of acceptance, there will be a $200 deposit required within two weeks to confirm your place in the internship you are applying for.
